

Could solo drivers appreciate a view like this? Taken from the Sounder between Sumner and Puyallup in the spring, watching the changing seasons and hours of daylight definitely gives pause to the world around us and the opportunity to appreciate it.

Michael Litt, IT Services

Peeling away excuses, like layers of an onion and blowing off three decades of dust, I climbed back on my bike and felt the joy again.

Tina Rogers, Auditor's Office

I started bussing to work again about 3 weeks ago. IT FEELS GREAT! I used to bike and bus to work regularly, but got out of the practice and into the habit of driving each day. I am now bussing 3-4 times per week. I feel healthier, am saving gas, helping the environment, and I am setting a good example for my son.

Robert Marks, Public Health

Thank you for participating in the Ride More Challenge!

I recently relocated and started walking to/from the Redmond courthouse. For the first time in 9 years I biked. I went with friends to my local park and rode around for several hours and loved it. I never would have imagined how great it feels to be active. Amanda Marks, District Court

We chose to carpool to build unity in the workplace, be economical with fuel, reduce the number of vehicles producing emissions, and to work together to navigate King County's area. Alex Thomas, Janet Arnette, Kyra DeSilva and Aaron McInroe, Sheriff's Office

King County

Employee Transportation Program

www.kingcounty.gov/ETP